Full membership includes Third Party risk related to beekeeping, disease insurance, membership of the British Beekeepers Association (BBKA), and receipt of the monthly magazine (BBKA News); £2.00 goes to the BBKA Research fund. The remainder of the fee includes membership of the Somerset Beekeepers Association (SBKA) and Quantock Beekeepers and includes access to an extensive Beekeeping Library, apiary sites and all equipment that is needed for extracting honey, wax handling and up to date briefings on Beekeeping Husbandry. £33.00

Partner membership This category entitles a full member's partner to the same insurance as a full member cover instead of both beekeepers paying full membership each. Please fill in another form for Gift Aid.

Partner's name £22.50

Junior member £11.50

Associate membership for members who do not have bees . (If you do not yet have bees, but intend to do so during the next year it is wise to take out full membership). £7.00

How many colonies of bees do you have? * Full membership includes Bee Disease Insurance for your first 3 colonies. You have the option to increase the premium for more colonies. Please ensure all your hives are covered, as under-declaration may invalidate the insurance.

Additional BDI. For 4-5 colonies add £2; 6-10 add £5.25; 11-15 add £7.75; 16-20 add £9.50; 21-25 add £11.00. For 26 colonies or more please contact BBKA for details. **£

Your membership includes registering with Bee Base unless you request otherwise. This gives you automatic updates about bee hazards, disease and updates from the National Bee Unit (NBU).

I am a UK Tax Payer. Please collect Gift Aid on my behalf on this and future donations.

To qualify you must pay an amount in Income Tax or Capital Gains tax at least equal to the amount we will claim each tax year. Currently we can claim an extra 25p for every £1 of your subscription, at no extra cost to you.

Please advise us if in the future you change your name or address or no longer qualify for Gift Aid.

Any certificates gained since 2015 ?
